

Unity Preschool is Seeking A Classroom Co-Teacher

ABOUT OUR SCHOOL

Unity Preschool is a nonprofit, developmental preschool that has served Evanston and surrounding communities for more than 50 years. We work to encourage learning and experimentation in the context of play while providing a comfortable, fun, and safe transition from home to school.

Our primary aim is to create a warm, inviting environment for children ages two through five to develop socially, emotionally, physically, and intellectually. Through an emphasis on building relationships with other children and adults in a happy, safe and stimulating setting, we strive to foster a positive self-image for the child.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Unity Preschool is looking for a co-teacher who will work as part of a two-person teaching team in daily operations of the classroom. The co-teacher is charged with helping to provide a happy, healthy, safe and stimulating atmosphere for children. Responsibilities include:

- Help children to develop social skills and foster self-esteem by encouraging them to think, reason, question, experiment, and solve problems
- Develop and implement curriculum that is developmentally appropriate and play-based
- Establish and maintain open communication with co-teacher, director and parents
- Attend monthly staff meetings and continue professional development by attending workshops and conferences
- Required hours are Monday through Friday, 8:45 to 12:15

ABOUT THE CANDIDATES

The ideal candidate will have a bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education or a related field. We also value a range of specific character attributes and competencies, including:

- Enthusiasm
- Flexibility
- Compassion
- Professionalism
